

Toronto Geological Discussion Group

Sponsors

Location Map

Twenty Toronto Street
20 Toronto Street
Toronto

Mini-symposium

Abitibi Gold:

The next 135 million ounces

When: Wednesday November 18, 2015 from 1:00-5:15 pm followed by refreshments until 6:30 pm

Where: Twenty Toronto Street, 20 Toronto St., 2nd floor Toronto (see map)

Admission Cost: $80 for TGDG Members; $115 for non-members (includes annual membership); free for students (registration and student card required). Online broadcast free (registration required).

Registration: Pre-register and pay online at www.tgdg.net or contact us via contact@tgdg.net. Space is limited, so book early. Registration closes November 12. If space remains, registration is available at the door at a surcharge of $20. Online registration closes November 18 morning.

Agenda

12:30 pm Registration

1:00 pm Welcome and introduction; Integra Gold Rush Challenge

1:15 pm Wouter Bleeker (Research Scientist, Geological Survey of Canada) – Synorogenic gold mineralization in granite-greenstone terranes: The deep connection between extension, major faults, synorogenic clastic basins, magmatism, thrust inversion, and long-term preservation

1:50 pm Jacques Simoneau (Exploration Manager, Integra Gold Corp.) – Advances at Sigma-Lamaque

2:25 pm Christian Tessier (Senior Mine Geologist, Canadian Malartic GP) – Canadian Malartic Mine, the challenge of mining a world-class deposit in town

3:00 pm Coffee break

3:20 pm Asmaa Anwar (Senior Geologist – Project Manager, Alamos Gold Inc.) – Geology and Mineralization at Young-Davidson

3:55 pm Doug Cater (Vice President Exploration, St. Andrew Goldfields Ltd.) – An Exploration Update for St. Andrew Goldfields

4:30 pm Kelly Malcolm (Exploration Geologist, Detour Gold Corp.) – Discovery at Detour South

5:05 pm Closing remarks

5:15-6.30 pm Networking and refreshments at Twenty Toronto Street