

www.tgdg.net

Toronto Geological Discussion Group

Mini-symposium

“Turning the Switch On: The Geology of Lithium and Other Battery Materials and How to Evaluate Risk in Today’s Markets”

Sponsors

Location Map

Twenty Toronto Street
20 Toronto St, 2nd floor
Toronto

When: Tuesday, April 25, 2017 from 1:00 to 5:00 pm followed by networking until 6:30 pm

Where: Twenty Toronto Street, 20 Toronto St., 2nd floor, Toronto (see map)

Admission Cost: $50 for members and $60 for non-members (includes reduced membership fee); free for students (registration and student card required). Online broadcast free (registration required).

Registration: Pre-register and pay online at www.tgdg.net or contact us via contact@tgdg.net. Space is limited, so book early. Registration closes April 18. If space remains, registration is available at the door at a surcharge of $20. Registration for the online broadcast closes April 25 (morning).

Agenda

12:30 pm – Registration

1:00 - Welcome

Overview - Lithium Battery Materials Markets: Matching Supply and Demand with Technology; Don Hains, Principal, Hains Technology Associates

LITHIUM – Separation Rapids Project, Ontario — An Archean Li-pegmatite deposit; Don Bubar, President and CEO Avalon Advanced Materials

CARBON - Albany Project, Ontario — A unique, large, high purity, Proterozoic-age, Igneous-hosted graphite deposit; Peter Wood, VP Exploration Zenyatta Ventures

Coffee Break

COBALT – NICO Project, NWT— A Proterozoic IOCG Co-Au-Bi-Cu deposit; Robin Goad, President and CEO Fortune Minerals

The Importance of Mineralogy, Metallurgy and Product Quality to specialty materials project development; Aron Cleugh, Managing Director, M.Plan International Limited

Panel Discussion – NI 43-101 and Specialty Materials project disclosure: What are the key risk factors and do the regulations address them adequately? Chair—Don Hains, Participants—Don Bubar (Avalon), Terry Hennessey (Micon), Craig Waldie, (OSC)

Closing Remarks followed by Networking to 6:30pm